6. Fold 1/2" in on BOTH long edges of each strap and press well. (Photo above shows just one side folded in.)

7. Tuck batting or fusible fleece strip into one folded edge. It should fit just right, nestling securely as we bring the other folded edge over to meet the first. Wonder clip or pin in place.

8. Top stitch along each long edge, closing the open edge as you sew.

9. Place one strap onto body of bag, 4" from side raw edge, bottom edges flush.

Repeat to attach second strap to other body piece.

10. Cut 2" squares out of each bottom corner, for both exterior body pieces.

11. Place exterior bag pieces RST making sure to match strips accordingly. Nest the seams and pin well. Sew along sides and bottom at 1/2" seam allowance. *You may want to baste first to check accuracy of strip matching.

12. Repeat steps 10 & 11 for lining pieces, leaving a 6" opening in the bottom for turning out later.

13. Pinch/pull side seam and bottom seam of boxed corner together, pin in place, and sew across the boxed edge at 1/2" seam allowance. Zig zag stitch within the seam allowance for added strength. Repeat for remaining corners (lining too).

14. Place lining into exterior bag, right sides together. Right side of lining facing out, right side of exterior is facing in towards lining. Tuck the straps down inside so they aren't caught in sewing around the top. Pin well matching side seams, and sew around top of bag at 1/2" seam allowance.

15. Pull bag right sides out through opening in lining and push lining back down into bag, press well. You may have to manipulate the top edge a little bit, coaxing it to lay flat- pressing not ironing.

16. If desired, top stitch around the top of bag. Hand sew lining opening closed.

Yield:

You do it! Great work- now sew 100 more so we can all stop using plastic bags. :)

Remember "done" is better than "perfect"- a piece of wisdom I picked up from my Quilting Bee friend Trish Frankland. If your strips aren't matching perfectly it's okay! A jelly roll is a lot of gorgeous fabric that will yield many bags, so practice again. These bags make great gifts for Teachers, Librarians, Friends, and Co Workers. Have fun Makers!
